Call for Contributions

The africanlegalstudies.blog is a platform for discussing political and legal developments on the African continent run by the Chair of African Legal Studies (Prof. Dr Thoko Kaime) at the University of Bayreuth, it aims to further the academic debate on these issues. With a wide-ranging list of authors, including students, politicians, lawyers, or professors, the blog attracts readers from all over the world.

We invite you to contribute to the Blog on the following topics:

- Human Rights
- Environmental Law
- Regional Integration
- Developments in Somalia
- Similar issues in African legal or political contexts

Contributions should have:

- Title
- Subheadings
- 1000 Words
- OSCOLA Citation
- 4-6 Category Tags
- Short Author Biography

Interested?
Visit africanlegalstudies.blog/contribute

